About Timmy Woods

This is Timmy Woods Beverly Hills

Timmy Woods Beverly Hills is a designer and manufacturer of fashion forward, high quality, wearable art handbags for women. Launched in 1992 by artist and entrepreneur Timmy Woods, Timmy Woods Beverly Hills is the outgrowth of years of design experience developed through a variety of design positions, a former handbag venture and business acumen and international savvy rendered through travel, education and experience in the international real estate market.

Timmy Woods Beverly Hills is focused on creating innovative designs that appeal to women with a broad range of interests and lifestyles. Inspired by handmade wooden boxes, Timmy sees these handcrafted wooden handbags as a fresh statement in fashion and as sculptured pieces of art. On the cutting edge of art and fashion, each bag is carved from fallen Acacia trees and is hand-made taking 30 days to complete. Forms of nature, pop trends, sports, hobbies, holidays and special events inspire the designs. Each unique design comes complete with a certificate of authenticity and originality.

Timmy's bags are carried and collected by celebrities like Liz Taylor, Diana Ross, Barbie Benton, Jody Fisher, Melanie Griffith and Hillary Clinton to name a few.

Led by president and owner Timmy Woods, Timmy Woods Beverly Hills has 175 employees and a market presence both nationally and internationally. Retail distribution includes approximately 1,500 specialty stores as well as prestigious catalogues such as The Smithsonian. The company's headquarters are located in Los Angeles, California, which is also home to the Timmy Woods Beverly Hills retail boutique.

A key corporate initiative has been and continues to be the diversification of products, packaging and retail markets with the goal to become a multi-faceted conglomerate.

About Timmy Woods

Timmy Woods is president and owner of Timmy Woods Beverly Hills, designer and manufacturer of fashionable, high quality, wearable art handbags for women. Born and raised in Beverly Hills, California, traveling the world extensively as a teen, Timmy holds a degree in sociology and art from UCLA and also attended The Fashion Institute of Design and Merchandising where she won the prestigious Rudi Gemrich design award. Timmy's designs have recently been published in Wearable Art Accessories and Jewelry 1900-2000 published by Schiffer Publishing LTD. A former model and performer, Timmy was also trained in classical ballet and danced with The New York City Ballet where she performed in various shows including "The Nutcracker Suite".

In 1985, Timmy began designing and manufacturing handbags. She immediately won the attention of the three "B's", Bergdorf, Bendel's and Bloomingdales. Although the business was successful, a Fortune 500 company, Oxford Industries, lured her into accepting a position to design Ken Done for the U. S. A. and B. J. Designs. Tired of tackling the demands of running
